

Travel and Health in Older People

A Guide for Health Professionals

Travel and health in older people

A Guide for Health Professionals

Editor. Iain B Mcintosh

Web editor Mike Townend

Authors

Julie Gallagher MBChB. DTM. MFTM RCPS(Glas), Iain B. Mcintosh BA(Hons). MBChB. DGMRCP. FFTM RCPS(Glas), Mike Townend MBChB (Hons), DTM, FFTM RCPS(Glas), Larry Goodyer BPharm, MPharm, PhD, MRPharmS, MFTM RCPS (Glas.) George Kassianos MD (Hons), FRCGP, DRCOG, LRCP (Edin), LRCP&S (Glas), D Med Acup, D Med Hypn, DFP, FFTM RCPS (Glas)

Commissioned by the Executive Committee of the British Travel Health Association

BT+HA
The British Travel Health Association

Travel and health in older people

CONTENTS.

- 1. Ageing and the traveller
Physiological effects on the individual
Effects of ageing on the older traveller
- 2. Pre-travel risk assessment
Factors affecting the traveller's health
- 3. Travel related disorders
Illness, trauma, infection risks and avoidance
- 4. Air travel and associated illness
- 5. Land and sea travel and associated illness
- 6. Travel induced illness
- 7. The cardiac and diabetic traveller
- 8. Functional impairment and the disabled traveller
- 9. Travel health insurance and medical tourism
- 10. Emergency health care overseas
- 11. Psychological factors affecting older travellers
- 12. Adventure travel and the older person
- 13. Infection, protection and prophylaxis
- 14. Travel medications and interactions